

HungerTech Innovation Challenge Terms and Conditions

Welcome to the 2023 HungerTech Innovation Challenge (the “Challenge”), hosted by AgriNovus Indiana and presented by Elevance Health.

Your entry into the Challenge is deemed acceptance of these Terms & Conditions by each individual currently involved with the business represented (each or together, an “Applicant”). In the event that a winner of the prize fails to satisfy any of the eligibility requirements and/or Terms & Conditions, that prize winner shall not be entitled to the prize and the prize may be awarded to another eligible entrant, or the prize may not be awarded, at AgriNovus Indiana’s sole discretion.

1. ELIGIBILITY:

- 1) The Challenge is open to all companies, students and residents. To be eligible, Applicants must be 18 and legal residents of the United States at the time of entry. Employees of AgriNovus Indiana, and employees of sponsor companies of the Challenge are not eligible to compete.
- 2) Applicants must be 18 years of age or older to enter.

2. DUTIES OF CHALLENGE APPLICANTS:

- 1) If you participate in the Challenge, you agree to:
  - a. Develop and submit a proof of concept solution for evaluation no later than May 18, 2023.
  - b. Present the idea to the final judge panel at the end of the program.
  - c. Participate in interviews and communications pieces about the Challenge with media at the local, state and national levels.
  - d. Promote the Challenge in a broad range of opportunities, but not limited to, media interviews, video testimonials, communications pieces, social media promotion and participation.

3. HOW TO ENTER

To apply for the 2023 HungerTech Innovation Challenge, please complete the application found here by April 7, 2023.

4. PRIZES

- 1) AgriNovus Indiana will distribute $25,000 total of prize money to one (1) Applicant as identified on the application found here. The Award will be announced at the end of the program, which will be selected by a panel of judges. A representative from the winning team must be present to receive the award.

- 2) AgriNovus Indiana is not responsible for any disputes among team members concerning prize or prize components.

5. EVALUATION CRITERIA

- 1) Every Applicant that submits a proof of concept on or before May 18, 2023 will be evaluated as part of the Challenge. Each submission will be evaluated against the following equally-weighted criteria:
  - a. Ability to implement a tech-enabled business solution that connects targeted populations experiencing food insecurity to for-profit and not-for-profit food networks.
  - b. Ability to target and tailor solutions for improving food access via food affordability, distribution, grocery access or transportation.
  - c. Ability to increase the availability of healthy and affordable food options in low-income communities through food assistance programs like food hubs, farmers markets and community-supported agriculture.
    - a. Startups may identify a technology or connectivity solution that can help food-insecure households more easily join a food hub or CSA, or connect consumers with food sources in the local economy that might otherwise go to waste.
  - d. Ability to use data and research to help companies and nonprofit organizations understand food business practices and product offerings, and whether specific programs are reliably helping to promote food security and improve health outcomes.
  - e. Each member of a winning team, along with all Submissions, is subject to validation by AgriNovus Indiana and/or the judges, whose decisions are final and binding in all respects.

6. CHALLENGE PERIOD/WINNER NOTIFICATIONS

All Challenge Applicants must register by April 7, 2023 for entry into the Challenge. The program will operate from April 10, 2023 to May 19, 2023. All proof of concepts submissions are due to AgriNovus Indiana by May 18, 2023. Announcement of the winner of the Challenge will be made at the conclusion of the program. Decisions of the judges are final.

7. TAXES

All prize money is taxable and payment of the applicable taxes is the sole responsibility of the winner.

8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 1) The ownership rights to each submission will remain with the Applicants.
- 2) The protection of intellectual property rights is the ultimate responsibility of each Applicant. Applicants are urged to mark as CONFIDENTIAL any portion of their entry which they consider to be confidential. Applicants should be careful about disclosing patentable concepts in their entries, as patent applications in the United States must be filed within one year of initial public disclosure.
- 3) Applicant understands and agrees the legal protection of the ideas and plans submitted by the Applicant to the Challenge is the sole responsibility of the Applicant.
- 4) Applicant understands that AgriNovus Indiana, each of the sponsors, judges and mentors and its directors, officers, employees and consultants are under no obligation to render any advice or service to any Applicant.
